

Ricky Hanks is a Senior Account Manager of First Federal Insurance Services, LLC and is responsible for writing Commercial lines of insurance. He assists businesses in identifying the risks and exposures in their particular industries.

With over 30 years in the insurance industry, Ricky is a Licensed Commercial Lines, Property/Casualty and Life/Health agent representing over 100 insurance companies. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Government from McNeese State University and is a member of the ACTS Team, the Board of Directors for Autism Services of SWLA, the Chamber of Southwest Louisiana, and the Home Builders Association of SWLA.

Ricky and his wife Cindy have two daughters, Erin-Beth Carter and Meghan Abraham. In his spare time, he enjoys playing golf, traveling and spending time with family and friends.

we've got you covered